
LEADERSHIP CREDIBILITY

LEADERSHIP VALUES AT GATEWAY CITY CHURCH

True leadership and influence is about one thing: CREDIBILITY.

Proverbs 21:28 (NLT) — “A false witness will be cut off, but a credible witness will be allowed to speak.”

Proverbs 25:4 (MSG) — “Remove impurities from the silver and the silversmith can craft a fine chalice; Remove the wicked from leadership and authority will be credible and God-honoring.”

Luke 4:32 (ESV) — “They were astonished at his teaching, for his word possessed authority.”

Values shape the way we lead and minister. Let’s agree on these values:

C _____: Rejoicing in the blessings, achievements and uniqueness of each member on the team and those we serve.

R _____: Prioritizing people over events, programs and tasks.

E _____: Establishing a standard of excellence, graciousness, fun, safety, and simplicity as a means of attracting listeners to our message.

D _____: Pursuing Christ first and foremost in prayer, worship and consecration.

I _____: Aligning our character, attitude and conduct with our message.

B _____: Respecting the things of God, the people of God, the house of God and the work of God with diligence, responsibility and care.

I _____: Using our gifts and resources creatively to meet the challenge of our mission, culture and context

L _____ a _____: Serving others with understanding, generosity and compassion.

I _____ in the Next _____: Intentionally pouring into younger people and new leaders, preparing them to serve and grow in the future.

T _____: United, dependable, loyal and accountable collaboration under our common ministry purpose.

Y _____ to the _____: In all we do, we seek to be surrendered and flexible with our plans so that the Spirit’s surprising power can freely flow.
